The CPD Certification Service

About CPD

Established in 1996, The CPD Certification Service is the independent CPD accreditation centre working across all sectors, disciplines and further learning applications and supports policies of institutional and professional organisations globally.

CPD is the term used to describe the learning activities professionals engage in to develop and enhance their abilities and keep skills and knowledge up to date. This course is an accredited Continuing Professional Development (CPD) training which means it meets CPD standards and benchmarks. The learning value has been scrutinised to ensure integrity and quality.

Meet Your Expert Course Leader

Mark Northway

BA (Hons) FinstAM

Independent Training Consultant

He is Director and Courses Co-ordinator for Deltic Training, a provider of accredited qualifications, delivering strategic administration and business management courses, from UK

Level-3 through to Level-5 on a worldwide basis. He is a former Director and Trustee of the Institute of Administrative Management (IAM), a Chief Examiner of the IAM, and a Prince's Trust Award winner for his role in business mentoring in the UK.

Mark has considerable experience in planning and managing the delivery of the Centre for Administrative Management Studies (CAMS) professional qualifications at Certificate, Diploma and Advanced Diploma level, and holds a Bachelor of Arts in Administrative Management from the University of Lincoln.

His areas of specialisation are in administrative systems and processes, change management, and financial control, with practical knowledge gained in the manufacturing and service sectors.

Course Requirements And Certificates

Delegates must meet two criteria to be eligible for an Informa Certificate of Completion for a course:

1. Satisfactory attendance – delegates must attend all sessions of the course. Delegates who miss more than 2 hours of the course sessions will not be eligible for the course assessment
2. Successful completion of the course assessment

Delegates who do not meet these criteria will receive an Informa Certificate of Attendance. If delegates have not attended all sessions, the Certificate will clearly state the number of hours attended.

Course Assessment

Assessment will be ongoing and based on in-class participation.

Course Methodology

You will engage in interactive group activities and discussions throughout the course, and discover transformational methodologies to help you become truly effective within your current and future roles.

Who Should Attend

This course is suitable for anyone with an administrative role in an organisation, or responsible for the processing of information. It is also highly recommended for those with – or wishing to achieve – higher management and board responsibilities in developing strategies to achieve organisational success through application of Administrative Management techniques:

- Administrators

Course Timings

Registration will be at 08:00 on Day One. Course sessions will start promptly at 08:30 each day and end at 14:30. There will be two short breaks for refreshments and lunch will be served at the end of each day's session.

Introduction

The science of Administrative Management (AM) provides a powerful tool with which to understand organisations and to create effective environments to process information.

This practical, interactive course is designed to increase your understanding of the role of the professional Administrator in your organisation. You will examine, through theory and practical examples, the different structures that organisations adopt and how these affect the systems, procedures, culture and the people who work in organisations. Using group workshops and activities you will exchange knowledge with other delegates and your Course Leader to improve your understanding of your role as a professional Administrator in support of your organisation's aims and objectives.

Having laid the foundations in Days One and Two, Days Three and Four consider methods to improve administrative practice at both personal and organisational level.

This course is designed to ensure that what you learn may be applied immediately in the workplace, as well as form the basis for longer term strategies.
